COUNTY NEWS NOTES.

(☞ To insure insertion ALL correspondence must be in this office by Monday night of each week, and that nearby on Monday morning)

Our correspondents are derelict in duty and we want to say that henceforth they will not receive papers except for the week they have news letters. We are dependent upon them for the news and when they fail to send in their favors they put us to great inconvenience.

SWANGO SPRINGS SAYINGS.

Harry Cecil, of Grassy, was seen about here one day last week.

W. T. Caskey, of Hazel Green, made a business call out this way Friday.

J. L. Billings, of Butler, Ky., is now enjoying a recuperation at our Springs.

Henry Shockey, of White Oak, was the guest of Boon May and family Friday.

Our poet and printer, of THE HERALD office, gave our villa a very pleasant call Sunday.

Rev. Bascon Ragan, our presiding elder, was combining business and pleasure with us Friday.

Messrs. Weaver and Foul, of Nicholas county, are now the guests of Uncle Harry Swango and wife.

Lanford Craft started for West Liberty Thursday morning, but we have not learned why he did not go on.

Harman Swango was seized with a violent attack of vertigo on Friday which threw him in a dead faint; with the help of Dr. Mason Kash, who was immediately summoned, the family managed to revive him, and we are glad to say, he is now convalescing.

W. P. Cecil came out and took supper with his sister, Mrs. Harman Swango, Sunday. He reports his wife as being much better, which gives her many relatives and friends much joy in thinking that she will soon be one among them again.

June 11 Uso.

SUNNY SIDE.

Porter Crane left for Jackson Saturday.

Scott Lacy went to Goodwin's chapel Sunday.

Mrs. M. J. Oney was visiting Judge Swango and wife Saturday.

J. W. Taulbee and wife attended the meeting at the chapel Sunday.

Miss Ollie Swango, of Stillwater, took in the entertainment last week.

Several from this section attended the meeting at Goodwin's chapel Sunday.

Jahial Philips, of the Public Square neighborhood, was in this section Sunday.

Arberry Brooks, of Glencarin, is spending a few days with his father and family this week.

James Keith, of Gillmore, passed through here en route to see the widow of the late Weed Hall who is quite ill.

Misses Minnie and Nell Hurst and brother, of Campton, were the guests of Ova Swango and wife part of last week.

Calla Oney was visiting the families of Bud Swango and Judge Centers, of Stillwater, Thursday and Friday.

Your writer, with the help of our dog, killed a monster snake Sunday afternoon. It was about four feet in length.

Miss Callie Taulbee and a young man from the Perkins fork of Lacy creek, took a pleasant strole out this way Sunday.

June 12. SUSIE SUNBEAM.

TOLIVER TOPICS.

Mrs. Jack Sweeny is on the sick list.

Dr. Elmer Sweatnam and mother passed through here en route to West Liberty, where they will remain for a few days among their relatives.

Uncle Press Trimble and W. P. Cecil came to A. B. Swango's Saturday to a bee robbing, and while there, they helped to eat the first mess of young potatoes and beats.

June 12. SCRIBE-MOX.

[From another correspondent.]

Bro. Johnson Adams, of Maytown, preached at Sandfield Sunday.

W. M. Barker and W. M. Lawson, of Grassy creek, are on the sick list.

Mrs. S. A. Howard, of Morehead, preached at Sandfield school house Monday night.

Peter Wills is robbing bees this week, and we think he should send the editor a bit.

Haulsey, the wool man, has been around taking up the people's wool for manufacturers.

George Neff and family, of Long branch, were visiting friends in Toliver Sunday.

W. A. Robinson and wife visited friends and relatives in Morgan county Sunday.

W. O. Oldfield and family talk of moving to Bourbon county to make their home there.

Rev. F. P. Wilson will preach at Greasy school house next Sunday. All are cordially invited.

The Sunday school at Sandfield, with T. L. Honaker as superintendent, is the best in the history of the school.

B. M. Mannin is suffering some from a boil on his arm. He has had 11 on his arm since the 20th of April.

Henry Murphy, of upper Grassy creek, killed 3 crows at one shot with a rifle gun. Henry has witnesses to the above.

Some hoodlums came to the public well at Sandfield on Friday last, and threw dynimite in it and blew out the tiling and bucket. It was done sometime about noon. The citizens know who they are that did it, and are going to see what can be done for them when the grand jury convenes again.

Miss Etta Swango, one of Toliver's charming belles, and who has been attending the Halel Green academy the past year, has been appointed post mistress at this place again. We wish her success in whatever line of work she may engage in.

THE BEST

Food for Intellectual Thought.

No man can vote intelligently unless he thinks intelligently. In this time of "wars and rumors of wars" the greatest aid to intelligent thinking and the best food for intelligent thought is that newspaper which is greatest and best.

Important political issues are daily growing more important. An intelligent understanding of the policy of a nation or a great political party is something to be desired, and it is the duty of every citizen to thoroughly inform himself upon the leading topics of the day.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY REPUBLIC is the greatest and best of all newspapers. Its telegraphic and cable news service excels that of any other paper. It prints the news fully; not imaginative occurrences, but domestic and world-distant, fully authenticated facts.

The policies of the great political parties are now being formed and the candidate discussed. Now is the time to subscribe for the best medium of keeping in touch with the whole world—THE SEMI-WEEKLY REPUBLIC.

No less worthy of attention is THE REPUBLIC'S Sunday Magazine. It is replete each issue with the best of special articles written by the best of literary talent. Its beautiful half-tone illustrations have already made it famous and their quality and quantity will be preserved.

News features of absorbing attraction are illustrated and enlarged upon in a manner equal to the high priced magazines. Event of current interest are set forth in entertaining style. There is humor in its pages, too, and for the benefit of the ladies the latest Paris fashions are each week exquisitely illustrated and described. THE REPUBLIC'S Sunday Magazine is standard.

The subscription price of THE SEMI-WEEKLY REPUBLIC is $1.00 per year. THE REPUBLIC Sunday Magazine $1.25 per year. Both papers are now being offered at the low price of $1.50 for one year. To secure this low rate both must be ordered and paid for at the same time. Address all orders to THE REPUBLIC, St. Louis, Mo.

TAULBEE—We are authorized to announce JOHN W. TAULBEE, as a candidate for County Superintendent of schools for Wolfe county, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

JAMES B. CECIL, of Ezel, sends us word that he will be a candidate for the democratic nomination for the legislature from this district, it being Morgan county's time to name the man, and that he will formally announce next week. We will then tell the people more about him. Time and space alike this week prevent a more extended notice.

WILLIAM H. HOLT, of Frankfort, former chief justice of the Kentucky court of appeals, was appointed by President McKinley United States district judge, of Porto Rico, on Monday, June 4th. The appointment of Judge Holt to that exalted position has given general satisfaction throughout the state.

SINCE we suggested Hon. James D. Black as the most available candidate for the democratic nomination for governor a few weeks ago, that gentleman has formally announced his candidacy and is now canvassing in the lower part of the state. THE HERALD advocated his claims in the last gubernatorial campaign, and the editor had some private correspondence with him, with the result that he had about concluded to make the race, when matters political became so complicated that he thought it best for the sake of harmony to withdraw from the race and did so. But now he is in to win, and will make a thorough personal canvass of the state. Jim Black, in our humble opinion is one of the brainiest men in Eastern Kentucky if not in the state at large, and a gentleman who could come nearer healing the wounds in the democratic ranks than any man we know. Not only that, but he would restore to Kentucky the honor that the recent bad behavior on the part of pot house politicians and poltroons have caused to be trailed in the dust. None but a first-class man in all the word man signifies should be called upon to head the democratic party this fall. Not only because none other is likely to win, but when the race is won we want a man that can restore the proud name of the old commonwealth to its wonted place, and that place is and has always been at the top of the list in the calendar of states. Hon. James D. Black will fill the bill.

THOUGH he has not made formal announcement of the fact it is generally understood that that sterling democrat, Hon. James M. Benton, of Winchester, will make the race for appelate judge in this district, and in the opinion of the leading democrats with whom we have talked he will make it warm for our young friend O'Rear. Mr. Benton is one of the best equipped lawyers in Central Kentucky, and no man stands higher than he with the legal profession throughout the state. He has been eminently successful in his practice, and if elected to the position to which he aspires he would reflect credit upon the district and prove the peer of any man from Eastern Kentucky who ever hold the place. He not only has all the qualifications for the position, but he is a democrat among democrats, and Wolfe county will give him every vote she can muster in both convention and election. THE HERALD thinks him the strongest man the democrats could name for this place, and will take pleasure in doing all it can to see him nominated and elected.

HOOD vs. HOOD.

C. I. Hood & Co., Victorious in Important Cases—Injunction Against Dr. J. C. Hood.

Important suits have just been decided in the U. S. circuit courts involving the right to the word Hood or Hood's. Messrs. C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass., proprietors of Hood's Sarsaparilla, began suit for infringment against Dr. J. C. Hood of Louisville, Ky., who was putting up what he called "Dr. Hood's Sarsaparilla." After a hearing in the U. S. circuit court at Louisville, Judge Evans on April 12 granted a temporary injunction in favor of C. I. Hood & Co., and restraining J. C. Hood from using the word Hood in any way or form on any preparation of sarsaparilla.

Messrs. C. I. Hood & Co., also began suit against a retail druggist in Indianapolis, Louis H. Kenkert, who was selling Dr. J. C. Hood's Sarsaparilla. Dr. J. C. Hood employed counsel and made a defence, but Judge Baker of the U. S. circuit court granted an injunction which on April 23 became perpetual.

These two decrees establish the exclusive right of C. I. Hood & Co. to the word "Hood's" and decide in effect that no other person can put a Hood's Sarsaparilla even if his name is Hood, nor can any retail druggist sell or offer for sale any sarsaparilla bearing the name Hood or Hood's other than that prepared by C. I. Hood & Co.

These decisions will be gratifying to every fair minded person. No manufacturer should object to fair competition, but when an attempt is made to steal or infringe upon a business which has been established by great skill, labor and expenditure, justice cannot be dealt out too quickly. Nor should "substitution" be allowed, when a standard article is called for. Therefore, when you go to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla you should be sure to get "only Hood's."

THE POOR MAN'S FRIEND.

My wife, she bought a cookin' book that tells folks how to save
Th' remnants uv a simple meal—here's one receipt it gave:
(Th' dish is called "The Poor Man's Friend,"
which intimates thet it
Is people short on money th' receipt had
oughter hit.)
Th' meat f'r th' foundation—jest a scanty
ounce'll do—
Thet does th' job th' nicest is th' kind from
Irish stew.
(N' these small remnants thet th' poor man
allus throws away,
His wife kin use ez corner stones f'r countless wealth some day.)
Then take some fine spring chickens—this receipt'll call f'r three,
(Which any poor man's larder kin supply
"at sight," y' see),
A pound uv homemade butter, 'n' some
thyme 'n' cel'ry too,
(F'r y' got to kill th' flavor in thet ounce uv
Irish stew).
Y' place it on th' 'lectric range, inside a
silver pail,
Drop in a terapin 'r two, a pa'tridge 'n' a
quail;
Then flavor it with cel'ry salt 'n' epicure's
bo'quet,
'N' it's ready fer th' table when it's simmered half a day.
Y' serve it 'n a golden dish, ef one is kickin'
round,
'N' garnish it with lotus buds—they add a
charm perfound—
'N' workin' men sh'd thank ther stars thet
this here book wuz writ
On household economics, fer ther case its
made to fit.

FRED J. EATON, in Truth.

Biggle Berry Book, being No. 2 of the Biggle Books, is all about berries. A whole encyclopedia of berry lore, boiled down after the manner of Farm Journal. Tells about varieties, and planting, growing, cultivating, picking and marketing. It gives practical pointers from the pens of scores of leading berry growers from all parts of the country who have contributed to its columns. It has colored representations of berries true to size and color, thirty-three portaits of practical berrymen, and 25 other illustrations, handsomely bound in cloth. The price is 50 cents, by mail; address the publishers, Wilmer Atkinson Co., Philadelphia.

To The Afflicted.

I am now in spurs and saddle again day and night. I am at the service of those who have always paid me for my services. Those who will not pay, I will not treat, so you need not call on me, for I can get paying practice enough to occupy my time. If not, I had rather rest in the shade than work for nothing. So those who owe me must come up and settle, for I am paying interest on money and getting nothing. You can pay me in anything from beans to cord wood and money—anything that I can use will be taken on debts. I am determined to pay my debts and you may expect to pay.

Robert B. Day is expected home soon. He is improving slowly.

Willie Gevedon, (drummer,) was interviewing our merchants on Tuesday.

Mrs. Sanford Day and sister, Mrs. Cardle, of Caney, were shopping here Friday.

Isaac Horton, of Camargo, was visiting relatives and friends near here Sunday.

Rev. Bruce Trimble and wife, and "Uncle Green" left for their home Tuesday.

Miss Maud Day, of Beattyville, who has been visiting at Walnut Grove, is in our midst.

T. J. Powers, of near Ezel, passed through here last week en route home from Breathitt county.

Quite a crowd from this place attended the quarterly meeting and funeral at Goodwin's chapel.

Wm. Besser, of the Payne shoe company, Charleston, W. Va., was a guest of the Day House over Sunday.

Mrs. Frank Thomas and little daughter "Stella" accompanied by Miss Rife, were shopping in our midst the past week.

Born, to the wife of Matt Adams, of Hazel Green, on Saturday, the 9th, a republican boy, according to Dr. A. C. Nickell's diagnosis.

Dave Linden sold W. T. Swango 145 sheep, average about 90 pounds at $3.50 on Wednesday, and sold John Brown 122 ewes and lambs at $3.00 per head a few days ago.

The season is rapidly approaching when the politician will extend the "glad hand" to ye editor in hopes of a little gratuitous advertising.

With this issue THE HERALD closes its 15th anniversary. Now, with the proper support, we will endeavor to make it far better than heretofore.

Hackney, the horse stood by John Pieratt at this place last season, shows some of the best colts now that were ever seen in this section.

Miss Etta James who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. C. E. French, at Lexington, for sometime, is expected home Wednesday.

Sherman Cope, formerly sheriff of Breathitt county, was in Hazel Green Saturday and Sunday on business.

F. L. Billings, editor of the Butler, Ky., Reformer, is spending a few weeks at Swango Springs for his health. Mr. Billings has made us several calls. Drop in any time, brother, you will always be welcome.

Notice to Sunday School Workers.

Prof. E. A. Fox, of Louisville, secretary of the Kentucky Sunday School Association, has promised to visit Wolfe county June 30th, and hold a county Sunday school convention. The people of Stillwater Bridge have kindly invited the convention to meet with them. The convention will be held in the church at that place, and dinner will be spread in the grove nearby. The Sunday schools of the county are invited to come en masse, and bring their baskets of dinner. This great cause is worthy of our earnest and prayerful effort, and we hope the representative Sunday school workers of Wolfe county, will meet Prof. Fox and the good people of Stillwater Bridge on that day, and render an acceptable service to Almighty God. Let all ministers and Sunday school superintendents announce this meeting and urge the people to attend.

Not a Candidate.

CAMPTON, KY., June 11, 1900.

To the democrats of the 10th congressional district of Kentucky:

Owing to the candidacy of my friends, Judge Amos Davis, of Morgan county, and J. B. White, of Estill county, representing counties contiguous to my own, which, in the very nature of the case, would have been for me, and for the sake of harmony in the democratic party and to prevent the possible division of instructed votes of mountain counties, and thereby lose to this part of the district even the prospect of a nomination to this place, I withdraw from the race. In doing so, I want to say to my friends throughout the district that I will ever be grateful to them for their kind solicitations and proffered support.

Respectfully,

A. HOWARD STAMPER.

Tom Williams, a citizen of the Clifty neighborhood and recently appointed census taker for this county, died very suddenly on Monday night at the residence of Allie Landrum. While engaged in taking the census he called at Mr. Landrum's to take the latter's family. He ate a hearty supper, talked until bed time, and was in his usual good health when he retired. Suddenly he was taken ill and ere medical aid could be summoned he expired. Mr. Williams was the stepfather of Mrs. Ova Swango, of our town, and of Mitch and Porter Crane, of Jackson. Mr. and Mrs. Swango left on Tuesday morning to attend the funeral obsequies, and the Crane boys telephoned and requested that the remains be held until Wednesday.

The removal of the academy, we understand, has been referred back from the national C. W. B. M. to the state C. W. B. M., and the latter held a meeting at Lexington on Tuesday. Prof. Cord was summoned to appear before them, and left here in time to catch the morning train on Tuesday morning. Upon his return we shall perhaps know something definite with reguard to the removal. In the meantime we can only hope.

There will be a county Sunday school convention at Stillwater Bridge, June 30. All denominations are requested to take part in this good work. Take your baskets well filled, for dinner will be served in the grove near by.

Rev. E. K. Pike will preach at the M. E. church at this place Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, and at Lacy creek at 3 in the afternoon. Everybody is cordially invited to attend these services.

ISN'T IT FUNNY.

BY SAM WILSON.

O, isn't it funny,
'Tis lots of money,
That man is wanting all the time;
By day he's a scheming,
By night he's a dreaming,
How to increase more wealth to his mine.

O, isn't it funny
Whene'er he gets the money;
He still is a grasping for more.
The gold's more brighter,
And holds it more tighter,
When asked to give a little to the poor.

O, isn't it funny
That all of his money
He keeps until he hears death's call;
And can you believe it?
He don't like to leave it,
And be levelled with the poor after all.

Editor Cooper—Please allow me space in your valuable paper to tell the people of the county what I know of David Linden, Gillmore creek's candidate for sheriff. In thus introducing him it is for the purpose of making yon side of the county better acquainted with him. To think of acquainting people generally or this side particularly, would be like "carrying coals to Newcastle." Everybody on Gillmore, in fact everywhere along the banks of Red river from Hazel Green to its headwaters know him like a book, but being his friend, I want to deaden along the other fellows' lines and yet not encroach further than to form new acquaintance, for the better Davy's known the better Davy dovetails into the affections.

But I started out to tell about how our hog-jawed young friend helped his mother raise those who were younger than himself and first thing I know I am away off here, "an old goose calmly grazing by moonlight." However, he did help his mother in many ways. She farmed and traded in stock, and while Aunt Roslyn did nearly or all buying, David proved quite an able assistant. He has always been jolly in disposition, and all agree that he is just about as genial as he is jolly. He don't know how to say "no," when one asks for alms or is in distress or needs help any way, and this has caused Aunt Roslyn lots of trouble. At times the fractional part of a cent in a cattle trade means ruin to one or other party, and Aunt Roslyn, knowing David's weakness when appealed to was always afraid he might give way at the wrong time.

They say it used to be a sight to see Dave rave and snort whenever he wanted a yoke of extra steer calves and his ma would say no.

"Dave Linden has the big head too bad to ever be sheriff," was a remark heard a few days ago, and investigation proved that he wears a No. 8¼ hat, which is perhaps the largest worn by any man in the mountains.

Gillmore, June 8.

Emmet Williams, of above Daysboro, who lives on Sam Henry Wilson's place, passed through here Wednesday evening, accompanied by his sister, Mattie Phipps, who was returning from the Danville deaf and dumb institute which she has been attending. She is both deaf and dumb, but apparently quite bright.

Miss Callie Oney, who attended the S. P. L. C. I. at Jackson this year, recently passed the county examination at that place successfully, obtaining a high average. (a first-class certificate.)

Mrs. Julia Johns, of Cedar Bluff, Va., surprised her sister, Mrs. Harmon Swango by suddenly appearing for supper last Tuesday night without having been previously announced.

Tom Maynes, representing the Ball-Warfield Co., Ironton, Ohio, was a guest of the Day House Wednesday, and incidentally interviewing our merchants.

Mrs. Jordan Wills, of Maytown, has been visiting relatives at and near this place this week.

A fine sketch of William Goebel—that engrossing figure in American politics whose career was cut short by an assassin's bullet in the shadow of the old, gray Kentucky capital—is given in "That Kentucky Campaign; or, The Law, the Ballot and the People in the Goebel-Taylor Contest," by Hughes, Schafer and Williams, of Louisville, Ky. The book is in fact in every line of it the story of the career of that most reviled, most admired and extremely mysterious character who was the central figure of attraction in events that have been without parallel in campaigns of any magnitude. With a free pen and a vast fund of incident and record, the story of the Kentucky electoral disturbance—fascinating to even the most remote outsider—is retold in a compact and yet complete form, as well as the story of the democratic leader who arose like a meteor from an obscure position and burst his way through constellations of bluegrass public life until his existence was rudely and abruptly terminated. The Supreme Court of the United States as a result of it all was given the responsibility of deciding questions so momentous that their full import cannot be gathered except from a full history of the Kentucky imbroglio such as "That Kentucky Campaign" appears to present ably and fairly.

Henry Cox and wife, of West Liberty; Misses Mary Wyatt and Emma Hollen, of Campton; Willie Pieratt and wife, of Spencer; John Cravens and wife, of McCausey; Joe Leslie Henry and wife with his sister, Miss Maud, of Caney, were pleasant guests of Mrs. Alice Pieratt during commencement week.

FOR : SALE.

Having decided to remove from Hazel Green I will sell all of my SHOP TOOLS AND FIXTURES, including BELLOWS, ANVIL, VISES, SCREW-PLATES, TIRE SHRINKERS, BENDERS, DRILL, etc., etc., too numerous to mention in detail. ☞ This is a good chance for some enterprising man to buy my entire interest in the firm of ROSE & DAVIS, and reap the reward of my labor in building up the trade the firm now enjoys. But unless I get an offer at once the tools, etc., will be sold in quantities to suit. In the shop is a large lot of blacksmith and wagon-makers' material, such as iron, steel, bolts, seasoned lumber, etc., to be disposed of in the same way.

Also, all of my HOUSEHOLD AND KITCHEN FURNITURE will be sold in quantities to suit purchasers, and the early callers will get bargains. A horse, harness, two saddles and a good milk cow will be sold.

"A GROUND-HOG CASE"

stares me in the face, and as I will soon leave Hazel Green it is absolutely necessary that I collect every debt due me, and I request all who are owing me to come forward and settle up at once. Those failing to do so may have to pay costs of collection, as I must and will have my money. The old man, you remember, tried to coax the boy out of the apple tree, and failing in that he resorted to rocks. I hope I wont have to throw any. Respectfully,

MR. BRYAN'S PLATFORM.

A Significant Letter Written to the Nebraska Statesman by John Brisben Walker, Editor of the Cosmopolitan.

Following is a copy of a letter addressed to William J. Bryan by his personal friend and stanch supporter, Mr. John Brisben Walker:

"Irvington-on-Hudson, N. Y., May 24.

"Dear Mr. Bryan:

"Upon every hand the next presidential election is regarded as likely to be the most important in the history of the republic. The question which will be uppermost is not simply a question of good or bad legislation, but the finality: 'Shall the republic give place to a form of government which will be the equivalent of a monarchy or worse? Shall democratic forms of government be replaced by the rule of the few unscrupulous men who have no regard for the general welfare nor love of republican institutions?'

"With the democratic party alone the hope of rescue remains. The man who by his error of judgment makes the success of that party impossible may be responsible for the downfall of the republic. The democratic party represents all that there is in concrete form of opposition to the dangerous state of affairs which now threatens; upon it depends the preservation of republican institutions. To succeed it must have the vote of the great majority of honest men.

"In such a crisis the worst enemy of the democratic party and of the country is that man who would narrow the platform and creed under which voters must act upon lines which may exclude those who are sincerely anxious for the public welfare. To repeat, the success of the democratic party is necessary for the preservation of government by the people. There are many issues for which the democratic party stands, but there is only one issue upon which the voters are certain to be united. Imperialism, trust rule, militarism, all mean but one thing, all represent but one issue, and upon this issue every Lincoln republican and every Jefferson democrat may unite. The finance issue, while of immense importance, must have no place in this campaign; its introduction will endanger more vital interests. No man has a better right to say this than I, who twenty-five years ago made it a part of my contract in taking charge of the Washington Daily Chronicle that I should be allowed to advocate the remonetization of silver, and in the Buffalo convention of 1896 wrote and secured the adoption of the clause indorsing the Chicago platform.

"I am in a position to know what men are saying and thinking. With a large personal acquaintance and correspondence scattered all over the country I am satisfied that those democrats who were most earnest in urging the adoption of the Chicago platform in 1896 and are most anxious for the success of democratic institutions to-day look at this matter in the light which I have here indicated. You have reason to known my belief in your great personal fitness to represent the interests of the people in the next campaign. I trust your sincerity, your imperviousness alike to fear, to flattery, to purchase. I trust your wisdom to conduct the affairs of the nation. But your leadership will be dearly purchased if in order to secure it we must adopt a platform which, however just in its enunciation, is unwise and unnecessary at this time, and which must result in driving away those votes which are necessary to perpetuate republican institutions.

"Yours faithfully,

"JOHN BRISBEN WALKER.

"WHITAR"

ONLY WHITE TAR SOAP IN THE WORLD.

Whitar Soap is a luxurious and purified white soap and deserves to be the old black tar soaps in every way.

It contains all the healing and antiseptic properties of the black tar soaps, with entire freedom from their objectionable features.

It soils neither towel nor wash bowl, for its lather is snow-white.

It lathers in Hard or soft water far more freely than other tar soaps, and, being 50 per cent. pure, outlasts any of "the filled" soaps of equal size.

It contains much more glycerine than other soaps, and this together with its soft thick lather make it a king among shampoo soaps. In the treatment of skin, scalp and hair diseases, aggravated cases of dandruff, scald head, falling hair, etc., Whitar is highly recommended.

Physicians recommend it for babies' baths, and in cases of chafe or heat rash, the soap is peculiarly efficacious.

Ask your dealer for it.

COUNTY NEWS NOTES.

(☞ To insure insertion ALL correspondence must be in this office by Monday night of each week, and that nearby on Monday morning)

Our correspondents are derelict in duty and we want to say that henceforth they will not receive papers except for the week they have news letters. We are dependent upon them for the news and when they fail to send in their favors they put us to great inconvenience.

SWANGO SPRINGS SAYINGS.

Harry Cecil, of Grassy, was seen about here one day last week.

W. T. Caskey, of Hazel Green, made a business call out this way Friday.

J. L. Billings, of Butler, Ky., is now enjoying a recuperation at our Springs.

Henry Shockey, of White Oak, was the guest of Boon May and family Friday.

Our poet and printer, of THE HERALD office, gave our villa a very pleasant call Sunday.

Rev. Bascon Ragan, our presiding elder, was combining business and pleasure with us Friday.

Messrs. Weaver and Foul, of Nicholas county, are now the guests of Uncle Harry Swango and wife.

Lanford Craft started for West Liberty Thursday morning, but we have not learned why he did not go on.

Harman Swango was seized with a violent attack of vertigo on Friday which threw him in a dead faint; with the help of Dr. Mason Kash, who was immediately summoned, the family managed to revive him, and we are glad to say, he is now convalescing.

W. P. Cecil came out and took supper with his sister, Mrs. Harman Swango, Sunday. He reports his wife as being much better, which gives her many relatives and friends much joy in thinking that she will soon be one among them again.

June 11 Uso.

SUNNY SIDE.

Porter Crane left for Jackson Saturday.

Scott Lacy went to Goodwin's chapel Sunday.

Mrs. M. J. Oney was visiting Judge Swango and wife Saturday.

J. W. Taulbee and wife attended the meeting at the chapel Sunday.

Miss Ollie Swango, of Stillwater, took in the entertainment last week.

Several from this section attended the meeting at Goodwin's chapel Sunday.

Jahial Philips, of the Public Square neighborhood, was in this section Sunday.

Arberry Brooks, of Glencarin, is spending a few days with his father and family this week.

James Keith, of Gillmore, passed through here en route to see the widow of the late Weed Hall who is quite ill.

Misses Minnie and Nell Hurst and brother, of Campton, were the guests of Ova Swango and wife part of last week.

Calla Oney was visiting the families of Bud Swango and Judge Centers, of Stillwater, Thursday and Friday.

Your writer, with the help of our dog, killed a monster snake Sunday afternoon. It was about four feet in length.

Miss Callie Taulbee and a young man from the Perkins fork of Lacy creek, took a pleasant strole out this way Sunday.

June 12. SUSIE SUNBEAM.

TOLIVER TOPICS.

Mrs. Jack Sweeny is on the sick list.

Mr. I. L. Honaker and wife spent from Friday till Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. John Brewer at Lee City.

Miss Fern, the little daughter of W. P. Cecil and wife, spent quite a pleasant visit at her uncles, A. B. Swango, the latter part of last week.

Dr. Elmer Sweatnam and mother passed through here en route to West Liberty, where they will remain for a few days among their relatives.

Uncle Press Trimble and W. P. Cecil came to A. B. Swango's Saturday to a bee robbing, and while there, they helped to eat the first mess of young potatoes and beats.

June 12. SCRIBE-MOX.

[From another correspondent.]

Bro. Johnson Adams, of Maytown, preached at Sandfield Sunday.

W. M. Barker and W. M. Lawson, of Grassy creek, are on the sick list.

Mrs. S. A. Howard, of Morehead, preached at Sandfield school house Monday night.

Peter Wills is robbing bees this week, and we think he should send the editor a bit.

Haulsey, the wool man, has been around taking up the people's wool for manufacturers.

George Neff and family, of Long branch, were visiting friends in Toliver Sunday.

W. A. Robinson and wife visited friends and relatives in Morgan county Sunday.

W. O. Oldfield and family talk of moving to Bourbon county to make their home there.

Rev. F. P. Wilson will preach at Greasy school house next Sunday. All are cordially invited.

The Sunday school at Sandfield, with T. L. Honaker as superintendent, is the best in the history of the school.

B. M. Mannin is suffering some from a boil on his arm. He has had 11 on his arm since the 20th of April.

Henry Murphy, of upper Grassy creek, killed 3 crows at one shot with a rifle gun. Henry has witnesses to the above.

Some hoodlums came to the public well at Sandfield on Friday last, and threw dynimite in it and blew out the tiling and bucket. It was done sometime about noon. The citizens know who they are that did it, and are going to see what can be done for them when the grand jury convenes again.

Miss Etta Swango, one of Toliver's charming belles, and who has been attending the Halel Green academy the past year, has been appointed post mistress at this place again. We wish her success in whatever line of work she may engage in.

THE BEST

Food for Intellectual Thought.

No man can vote intelligently unless he thinks intelligently. In this time of "wars and rumors of wars" the greatest aid to intelligent thinking and the best food for intelligent thought is that newspaper which is greatest and best.

Important political issues are daily growing more important. An intelligent understanding of the policy of a nation or a great political party is something to be desired, and it is the duty of every citizen to thoroughly inform himself upon the leading topics of the day.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY REPUBLIC is the greatest and best of all newspapers. Its telegraphic and cable news service excels that of any other paper. It prints the news fully; not imaginative occurrences, but domestic and world-distant, fully authenticated facts.

The policies of the great political parties are now being formed and the candidate discussed. Now is the time to subscribe for the best medium of keeping in touch with the whole world—THE SEMI-WEEKLY REPUBLIC.

No less worthy of attention is THE REPUBLIC'S Sunday Magazine. It is replete each issue with the best of special articles written by the best of literary talent. Its beautiful half-tone illustrations have already made it famous and their quality and quantity will be preserved.

News features of absorbing attraction are illustrated and enlarged upon in a manner equal to the high priced magazines. Event of current interest are set forth in entertaining style. There is humor in its pages, too, and for the benefit of the ladies the latest Paris fashions are each week exquisitely illustrated and described. THE REPUBLIC'S Sunday Magazine is standard.

The subscription price of THE SEMI-WEEKLY REPUBLIC is $1.00 per year. THE REPUBLIC Sunday Magazine $1.25 per year. Both papers are now being offered at the low price of $1.50 for one year. To secure this low rate both must be ordered and paid for at the same time. Address all orders to THE REPUBLIC, St. Louis, Mo.

TAULBEE—We are authorized to announce JOHN W. TAULBEE, as a candidate for County Superintendent of schools for Wolfe county, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

JAMES B. CECIL, of Ezel, sends us word that he will be a candidate for the democratic nomination for the legislature from this district, it being Morgan county's time to name the man, and that he will formally announce next week. We will then tell the people more about him. Time and space alike this week prevent a more extended notice.

WILLIAM H. HOLT, of Frankfort, former chief justice of the Kentucky court of appeals, was appointed by President McKinley United States district judge, of Porto Rico, on Monday, June 4th. The appointment of Judge Holt to that exalted position has given general satisfaction throughout the state.

SINCE we suggested Hon. James D. Black as the most available candidate for the democratic nomination for governor a few weeks ago, that gentleman has formally announced his candidacy and is now canvassing in the lower part of the state. THE HERALD advocated his claims in the last gubernatorial campaign, and the editor had some private correspondence with him, with the result that he had about concluded to make the race, when matters political became so complicated that he thought it best for the sake of harmony to withdraw from the race and did so. But now he is in to win, and will make a thorough personal canvass of the state. Jim Black, in our humble opinion is one of the brainiest men in Eastern Kentucky if not in the state at large, and a gentleman who could come nearer healing the wounds in the democratic ranks than any man we know. Not only that, but he would restore to Kentucky the honor that the recent bad behavior on the part of pot house politicians and poltroons have caused to be trailed in the dust. None but a first-class man in all the word man signifies should be called upon to head the democratic party this fall. Not only because none other is likely to win, but when the race is won we want a man that can restore the proud name of the old commonwealth to its wonted place, and that place is and has always been at the top of the list in the calendar of states. Hon. James D. Black will fill the bill.

THOUGH he has not made formal announcement of the fact it is generally understood that that sterling democrat, Hon. James M. Benton, of Winchester, will make the race for appelate judge in this district, and in the opinion of the leading democrats with whom we have talked he will make it warm for our young friend O'Rear. Mr. Benton is one of the best equipped lawyers in Central Kentucky, and no man stands higher than he with the legal profession throughout the state. He has been eminently successful in his practice, and if elected to the position to which he aspires he would reflect credit upon the district and prove the peer of any man from Eastern Kentucky who ever hold the place. He not only has all the qualifications for the position, but he is a democrat among democrats, and Wolfe county will give him every vote she can muster in both convention and election. THE HERALD thinks him the strongest man the democrats could name for this place, and will take pleasure in doing all it can to see him nominated and elected.

HOOD vs. HOOD.

C. I. Hood & Co., Victorious in Important Cases—Injunction Against Dr. J. C. Hood.

Important suits have just been decided in the U. S. circuit courts involving the right to the word Hood or Hood's. Messrs. C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass., proprietors of Hood's Sarsaparilla, began suit for infringment against Dr. J. C. Hood of Louisville, Ky., who was putting up what he called "Dr. Hood's Sarsaparilla." After a hearing in the U. S. circuit court at Louisville, Judge Evans on April 12 granted a temporary injunction in favor of C. I. Hood & Co., and restraining J. C. Hood from using the word Hood in any way or form on any preparation of sarsaparilla.

Messrs. C. I. Hood & Co., also began suit against a retail druggist in Indianapolis, Louis H. Kenkert, who was selling Dr. J. C. Hood's Sarsaparilla. Dr. J. C. Hood employed counsel and made a defence, but Judge Baker of the U. S. circuit court granted an injunction which on April 23 became perpetual.

These two decrees establish the exclusive right of C. I. Hood & Co. to the word "Hood's" and decide in effect that no other person can put a Hood's Sarsaparilla even if his name is Hood, nor can any retail druggist sell or offer for sale any sarsaparilla bearing the name Hood or Hood's other than that prepared by C. I. Hood & Co.

These decisions will be gratifying to every fair minded person. No manufacturer should object to fair competition, but when an attempt is made to steal or infringe upon a business which has been established by great skill, labor and expenditure, justice cannot be dealt out too quickly. Nor should "substitution" be allowed, when a standard article is called for. Therefore, when you go to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla you should be sure to get "only Hood's."

THE POOR MAN'S FRIEND.

My wife, she bought a cookin' book that
tells folks how to save
Th' remnants uv a simple meal—here's one
receipt it gave:
(Th' dish is called "The Poor Man's Friend,"
which intimates thet it
Is people short on money th' receipt had
oughter hit.)
Th' meat f'r th' foundation—jest a scanty
ounce'll do—
Thet does th' job th' nicest is th' kind from
Irish stew.
(N' these small remnants thet th' poor man
allus throws away,
His wife kin use ez corner stones f'r countless wealth some day.)
Then take some fine spring chickens—this
receipt'll call f'r three,
(Which any poor man's larder kin supply
"at sight," y' see),
A pound uv homemade butter, 'n' some
thyme 'n' cel'ry too,
(F'r y' got to kill th' flavor in thet ounce uv
Irish stew).
Y' place it on th' 'lectric range, inside a
silver pail,
Drop in a terapin 'r two, a pa'tridge 'n' a
quail;
Then flavor it with cel'ry salt 'n' epicure's
bo'quet,
'N' it's ready fer th' table when it's simmered half a day.
Y' serve it 'n a golden dish, ef one is kickin'
round,
'N' garnish it with lotus buds—they add a
charm perfound—
'N' workin' men sh'd thank ther stars thet
this here book wuz writ
On household economics, fer ther case its
made to fit.

FRED J. EATON, in Truth.

Biggle Berry Book, being No. 2 of the Biggle Books, is all about berries. A whole encyclopedia of berry lore, boiled down after the manner of Farm Journal. Tells about varieties, and planting, growing, cultivating, picking and marketing. It gives practical pointers from the pens of scores of leading berry growers from all parts of the country who have contributed to its columns. It has colored representations of berries true to size and color, thirty-three portaits of practical berrymen, and 25 other illustrations, handsomely bound in cloth. The price is 50 cents, by mail; address the publishers, Wilmer Atkinson Co., Philadelphia.

To The Afflicted.

I am now in spurs and saddle again day and night. I am at the service of those who have always paid me for my services. Those who will not pay, I will not treat, so you need not call on me, for I can get paying practice enough to occupy my time. If not, I had rather rest in the shade than work for nothing. So those who owe me must come up and settle, for I am paying interest on money and getting nothing. You can pay me in anything from beans to cord wood and money—anything that I can use will be taken on debts. I am determined to pay my debts and you may expect to pay.

stands at the head of all veterinary remedies. Such troubles as Spavins, Curbs, Windpuffs, Splints, Bunches have no terrors for a horse if the master keeps and applies Quinn's Ointment. All well known horsemen speak of it in the highest terms:

Miller & Sibley of Franklin, Pa., owners of St. Bel, brother of late Bel Boy, write, "We have used Quinn's Ointment with great success and believe it fulfills all claimed for it. We cheerfully recommend it to our friends." For Curbs, Splints, Spavins or Bunches it has no equal.

THE HERALD.

A Great Offer.

FARM JOURNAL

From now to Dec, 1903, Nearly 5 Years.

By special arrangement made with the publishers of the FARM JOURNAL we are enabled to offer that paper to every subscriber who pays for THE HERALD one year ahead for only $1.00 both papers for the price of ours only; our paper one year and the FARM JOURNAL from now until December 1903, nearly 5 years. The FARM JOURNAL is an old established paper enjoying great popularity, one of the best and most useful farm papers published.

This offer should be accepted without delay.

Robert B. Day is expected home soon. He is improving slowly.

Willie Gevedon, (drummer,) was interviewing our merchants on Tuesday.

Mrs. Sanford Day and sister, Mrs. Cardle, of Caney, were shopping here Friday.

Isaac Horton, of Camargo, was visiting relatives and friends near here Sunday.

Rev. Bruce Trimble and wife, and "Uncle Green" left for their home Tuesday.

Miss Maud Day, of Beattyville, who has been visiting at Walnut Grove, is in our midst.

T. J. Powers, of near Ezel, passed through here last week en route home from Breathitt county.

Quite a crowd from this place attended the quarterly meeting and funeral at Goodwin's chapel.

Wm. Besser, of the Payne shoe company, Charleston, W. Va., was a guest of the Day House over Sunday.

Mrs. Frank Thomas and little daughter "Stella" accompanied by Miss Rife, were shopping in our midst the past week.

Born, to the wife of Matt Adams, of Hazel Green, on Saturday, the 9th, a republican boy, according to Dr. A. C. Nickell's diagnosis.

Dave Linden sold W. T. Swango 145 sheep, average about 90 pounds at $3.50 on Wednesday, and sold John Brown 122 ewes and lambs at $3.00 per head a few days ago.

HUMORS, boils, pimples and all eruptions are due to impure blood, and by purifying the blood with Hood's Sarsaparilla they are CURED.

The season is rapidly approaching when the politician will extend the "glad hand" to ye editor in hopes of a little gratuitous advertising.

With this issue THE HERALD closes its 15th anniversary. Now, with the proper support, we will endeavor to make it far better than heretofore.

Hackney, the horse stood by John Pieratt at this place last season, shows some of the best colts now that were ever seen in this section.

Miss Etta James who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. C. E. French, at Lexington, for sometime, is expected home Wednesday.

Sherman Cope, formerly sheriff of Breathitt county, was in Hazel Green Saturday and Sunday on business.

F. L. Billings, editor of the Butler, Ky., Reformer, is spending a few weeks at Swango Springs for his health. Mr. Billings has made us several calls. Drop in any time, brother, you will always be welcome.

Notice to Sunday School Workers.

Prof. E. A. Fox, of Louisville, secretary of the Kentucky Sunday School Association, has promised to visit Wolfe county June 30th, and hold a county Sunday school convention. The people of Stillwater Bridge have kindly invited the convention to meet with them. The convention will be held in the church at that place, and dinner will be spread in the grove nearby. The Sunday schools of the county are invited to come en masse, and bring their baskets of dinner. This great cause is worthy of our earnest and prayerful effort, and we hope the representative Sunday school workers of Wolfe county, will meet Prof. Fox and the good people of Stillwater Bridge on that day, and render an acceptable service to Almighty God. Let all ministers and Sunday school superintendents announce this meeting and urge the people to attend.

Not a Candidate.

CAMPTON, KY., June 11, 1900.

To the democrats of the 10th congressional district of Kentucky:

Owing to the candidacy of my friends, Judge Amos Davis, of Morgan county, and J. B. White, of Estill county, representing counties contiguous to my own, which, in the very nature of the case, would have been for me, and for the sake of harmony in the democratic party and to prevent the possible division of instructed votes of mountain counties, and thereby lose to this part of the district even the prospect of a nomination to this place, I withdraw from the race. In doing so, I want to say to my friends throughout the district that I will ever be grateful to them for their kind solicitations and proffered support.

Respectfully,

A. HOWARD STAMPER.

Tom Williams, a citizen of the Clifty neighborhood and recently appointed census taker for this county, died very suddenly on Monday night at the residence of Allie Landrum. While engaged in taking the census he called at Mr. Landrum's to take the latter's family. He ate a hearty supper, talked until bed time, and was in his usual good health when he retired. Suddenly he was taken ill and ere medical aid could be summoned he expired. Mr. Williams was the stepfather of Mrs. Ova Swango, of our town, and of Mitch and Porter Crane, of Jackson. Mr. and Mrs. Swango left on Tuesday morning to attend the funeral obsequies, and the Crane boys telephoned and requested that the remains be held until Wednesday.

The removal of the academy, we understand, has been referred back from the national C. W. B. M. to the state C. W. B. M., and the latter held a meeting at Lexington on Tuesday. Prof. Cord was summoned to appear before them, and left here in time to catch the morning train on Tuesday morning. Upon his return we shall perhaps know something definite with reguard to the removal. In the meantime we can only hope.

There will be a county Sunday school convention at Stillwater Bridge, June 30. All denominations are requested to take part in this good work. Take your baskets well filled, for dinner will be served in the grove near by.

Rev. E. K. Pike will preach at the M. E. church at this place Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, and at Lacy creek at 3 in the afternoon. Everybody is cordially invited to attend these services.

ISN'T IT FUNNY.

BY SAM WILSON.

O, isn't it funny,
'Tis lots of money,
That man is wanting all the time;
By day he's a scheming,
By night he's a dreaming,
How to increase more wealth to his mine.

O, isn't it funny
Whene'er he gets the money;
He still is a grasping for more.
The gold's more brighter,
And holds it more tighter,
When asked to give a little to the poor.

O, isn't it funny
That all of his money
He keeps until he hears death's call;
And can you believe it?
He don't like to leave it,
And be levelled with the poor after all.

Editor Cooper—Please allow me space in your valuable paper to tell the people of the county what I know of David Linden, Gillmore creek's candidate for sheriff. In thus introducing him it is for the purpose of making yon side of the county better acquainted with him. To think of acquainting people generally or this side particularly, would be like "carrying coals to Newcastle." Everybody on Gillmore, in fact everywhere along the banks of Red river from Hazel Green to its headwaters know him like a book, but being his friend, I want to deaden along the other fellows' lines and yet not encroach further than to form new acquaintance, for the better Davy's known the better Davy dovetails into the affections.

But I started out to tell about how our hog-jawed young friend helped his mother raise those who were younger than himself and first thing I know I am away off here, "an old goose calmly grazing by moonlight." However, he did help his mother in many ways. She farmed and traded in stock, and while Aunt Roslyn did nearly or all buying, David proved quite an able assistant. He has always been jolly in disposition, and all agree that he is just about as genial as he is jolly. He don't know how to say "no," when one asks for alms or is in distress or needs help any way, and this has caused Aunt Roslyn lots of trouble. At times the fractional part of a cent in a cattle trade means ruin to one or other party, and Aunt Roslyn, knowing David's weakness when appealed to was always afraid he might give way at the wrong time.

They say it used to be a sight to see Dave rave and snort whenever he wanted a yoke of extra steer calves and his ma would say no.

"Dave Linden has the big head too bad to ever be sheriff," was a remark heard a few days ago, and investigation proved that he wears a No. 8¼ hat, which is perhaps the largest worn by any man in the mountains.

Gillmore, June 8.

Emmet Williams, of above Daysboro, who lives on Sam Henry Wilson's place, passed through here Wednesday evening, accompanied by his sister, Mattie Phipps, who was returning from the Danville deaf and dumb institute which she has been attending. She is both deaf and dumb, but apparently quite bright.

Miss Callie Oney, who attended the S. P. L. C. I. at Jackson this year, recently passed the county examination at that place successfully, obtaining a high average. (a first-class certificate.)

Mrs. Julia Johns, of Cedar Bluff, Va., surprised her sister, Mrs. Harmon Swango by suddenly appearing for supper last Tuesday night without having been previously announced.

Tom Maynes, representing the Ball-Warfield Co., Ironton, Ohio, was a guest of the Day House Wednesday, and incidentally interviewing our merchants.

Mrs. Jordan Wills, of Maytown, has been visiting relatives at and near this place this week.

Ernie Swango has the thanks of the editor and his better ½ for a mess of pie plant.

A fine sketch of William Goebel—that engrossing figure in American politics whose career was cut short by an assassin's bullet in the shadow of the old, gray Kentucky capital—is given in "That Kentucky Campaign; or, The Law, the Ballot and the People in the Goebel-Taylor Contest," by Hughes, Schafer and Williams, of Louisville, Ky. The book is in fact in every line of it the story of the career of that most reviled, most admired and extremely mysterious character who was the central figure of attraction in events that have been without parallel in campaigns of any magnitude. With a free pen and a vast fund of incident and record, the story of the Kentucky electoral disturbance—fascinating to even the most remote outsider—is retold in a compact and yet complete form, as well as the story of the democratic leader who arose like a meteor from an obscure position and burst his way through constellations of bluegrass public life until his existence was rudely and abruptly terminated. The Supreme Court of the United States as a result of it all was given the responsibility of deciding questions so momentous that their full import cannot be gathered except from a full history of the Kentucky imbroglio such as "That Kentucky Campaign" appears to present ably and fairly.

Henry Cox and wife, of West Liberty; Misses Mary Wyatt and Emma Hollen, of Campton; Willie Pieratt and wife, of Spencer; John Cravens and wife, of McCausey; Joe Leslie Henry and wife with his sister, Miss Maud, of Caney, were pleasant guests of Mrs. Alice Pieratt during commencement week.

FOR : SALE.

Having decided to remove from Hazel Green I will sell all of my SHOP TOOLS AND FIXTURES, including BELLOWS, ANVIL, VISES, SCREW-PLATES, TIRE SHRINKERS, BENDERS, DRILL, etc., etc., too numerous to mention in detail. ☞ This is a good chance for some enterprising man to buy my entire interest in the firm of ROSE & DAVIS, and reap the reward of my labor in building up the trade the firm now enjoys. But unless I get an offer at once the tools, etc., will be sold in quantities to suit. In the shop is a large lot of blacksmith and wagon-makers' material, such as iron, steel, bolts, seasoned lumber, etc., to be disposed of in the same way.

Also, all of my HOUSEHOLD AND KITCHEN FURNITURE will be sold in quantities to suit purchasers, and the early callers will get bargains. A horse, harness, two saddles and a good milk cow will be sold.

MR. BRYAN'S PLATFORM.

A Significant Letter Written to the Nebraska Statesman by John Brisben Walker, Editor of the Cosmopolitan.

Following is a copy of a letter addressed to William J. Bryan by his personal friend and stanch supporter, Mr. John Brisben Walker:

"Irvington-on-Hudson, N. Y., May 24.

"Dear Mr. Bryan:

"Upon every hand the next presidential election is regarded as likely to be the most important in the history of the republic. The question which will be uppermost is not simply a question of good or bad legislation, but the finality: 'Shall the republic give place to a form of government which will be the equivalent of a monarchy or worse? Shall democratic forms of government be replaced by the rule of the few unscrupulous men who have no regard for the general welfare nor love of republican institutions?'

"With the democratic party alone the hope of rescue remains. The man who by his error of judgment makes the success of that party impossible may be responsible for the downfall of the republic. The democratic party represents all that there is in concrete form of opposition to the dangerous state of affairs which now threatens; upon it depends the preservation of republican institutions. To succeed it must have the vote of the great majority of honest men.

"In such a crisis the worst enemy of the democratic party and of the country is that man who would narrow the platform and creed under which voters must act upon lines which may exclude those who are sincerely anxious for the public welfare. To repeat, the success of the democratic party is necessary for the preservation of government by the people. There are many issues for which the democratic party stands, but there is only one issue upon which the voters are certain to be united. Imperialism, trust rule, militarism, all mean but one thing, all represent but one issue, and upon this issue every Lincoln republican and every Jefferson democrat may unite. The finance issue, while of immense importance, must have no place in this campaign; its introduction will endanger more vital interests. No man has a better right to say this than I, who twenty-five years ago made it a part of my contract in taking charge of the Washington Daily Chronicle that I should be allowed to advocate the remonetization of silver, and in the Buffalo convention of 1896 wrote and secured the adoption of the clause indorsing the Chicago platform.

"I am in a position to know what men are saying and thinking. With a large personal acquaintance and correspondence scattered all over the country I am satisfied that those democrats who were most earnest in urging the adoption of the Chicago platform in 1896 and are most anxious for the success of democratic institutions to-day look at this matter in the light which I have here indicated. You have reason to known my belief in your great personal fitness to represent the interests of the people in the next campaign. I trust your sincerity, your imperviousness alike to fear, to flattery, to purchase. I trust your wisdom to conduct the affairs of the nation. But your leadership will be dearly purchased if in order to secure it we must adopt a platform which, however just in its enunciation, is unwise and unnecessary at this time, and which must result in driving away those votes which are necessary to perpetuate republican institutions.

"Yours faithfully,

"JOHN BRISBEN WALKER.

"WHITAR"

ONLY WHITE TAR SOAP IN THE WORLD.

Whitar Soap is a luxurious and purified white soap and deserves to be the old black tar soaps in every way.

It contains all the healing and antiseptic properties of the black tar soaps, with entire freedom from their objectionable features.

It soils neither towel nor wash bowl, for its lather is snow-white.

It lathers in Hard or soft water far more freely than other tar soaps, and, being 50 per cent. pure, outlasts any of "the filled" soaps of equal size.

It contains much more glycerine than other soaps, and this together with its soft thick lather make it a king among shampoo soaps. In the treatment of skin, scalp and hair diseases, aggravated cases of dandruff, scald head, falling hair, etc., Whitar is highly recommended.

Physicians recommend it for babies' baths, and in cases of chafe or heat rash, the soap is peculiarly efficacious.

Ask your dealer for it.
